ALAMO ARRIVED JUST IN TIME

Fight to Keep Water Out of Ship Became Secondary and Tarpaullins Were Stretched to Aid Wireless Apparatus—Silver Service Most Valuable Thing Aboard.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 5.—Capt. Frank C. Moore and his crew of forty-six men, who were taken from the sinking steamship Kentucky by the Mallory liner Alamo off South Carolina on Friday, have given to the officers of the Alamo a full story of their trying experience at sea.

The Kentucky left Newport News on Wednesday night. Hatteras was reached on February 3. At midnight of February 4 it was reported to the captain that the ship was leaking badly. Capt. Moore found that some of the seams had parted and that the ship was filling. Pumps were brought into play, and for a time they seemed to gain headway.

Wireless Flash Imperative. Two hours after the leaks were found the situation was bad, but after that it was thought the outlook was brightening, and it was not decided to call for outside aid until about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Then it was found imperative to flash the "S. O. S." signal. The fight to keep the water out of the

FORMER CASHIER ENDS LIFE

Charles H. Davidge Will Be Buried in Crawfordville, Ind.

The body of Charles H. Davidge, sixty-seven years old, who committed suicide at his home, 1238 Q street northwest, yesterday morning by shooting himself in the temple with a revolver because of the demerol over the death of his wife in June last, will be shipped to Crawfordville, Ind., this afternoon.

There will be no services in this city. Miss McCrea, sister of the deceased, will accompany the body. Interment will be beside the body of Mrs. Davidge.

Davidge was a brother-in-law of the late John C. New, who was chairman of the Republican National Committee for several years. Through his relative, Davidge obtained an appointment as clerk in the Treasury Department, and was promoted until he attained the office of chief of the redemption division, which he resigned in 1885.

He went to his home in Crawfordville and worked as cashier in a bank. He later was cashier in several banking institutions of this city.

TWO BILLS DISCUSSED

Senate Adjourns to Monday After Brief Session.

ONE DEALS WITH EXTRADITION

Senator Piles Favours Law to Compel Surrender of Fugitives by the State Where They Are Captured.

The Senate held a brief session yesterday. Most of the time was devoted to discussing a bill offered by Senator Piles, of Washington, amending the statutes relating to extradition, and making it the duty of any State to surrender on demand any person charged with crime, either by an indictment or upon information filed by the prosecuting officer.

In some of the Western States extradition has not been honored when asked upon the basis of information filed, and where no indictment has been returned. The courts have upheld this refusal, and it is to meet this condition that the bill was proposed.

Senator Root opposed it, as did Senator Heyburn, of Idaho. The bill was defended by Senator Piles and Senator Borah, of Idaho. No action was taken on the measure.

Postal Bank Bill Considered. Just before the Senate adjourned brief consideration was given to the postal savings bank bill and Senator Page, of Vermont, offered an amendment requiring that banks holding postal deposits should carry "an adequate reserve." The consideration of the bill was cut short by an executive session devoted to confirming nominations.

In the morning hour Senator Aldrich reported a bill from the Finance Committee, authorizing the appointment of a commission on business methods, the commission to consist of nine members, three to be appointed by the Vice President from the membership of the Senate, three to be appointed by the Speaker from the members of the House, and three civilians to be selected by the President. The commission is authorized to make a study of business methods with a view of applying them to the governmental service in the interest of economy. An objection from Senator Ekins prevented the immediate consideration of the resolution. The Senate adjourned until Monday.

Three Wills Probated.

By the will of John F. Crown, filed for probate, his interest in the business of J. F. Crown &amp; Son was left to the son, John W. Crown. The will of Joshua Johnson and that of Mrs. Marcella Brooks were also filed yesterday.

Speaks on Home Temperance.

At Friendship House Friday afternoon the Women's Christian Temperance Union held a joint meeting with the Mothers' Club. "Temperance in the home," was the subject of an address by Mrs. E. S. Bradford. Mrs. Albert Seabier read a paper on "Self-control." Mrs. N. J. Cavellson sang.

PATENT OFFICE PROFITABLE.

The Commissioners' Annual Report Shows Surplus of $87,677.

Unlike other branches of the government, the Patent Office is self-sustaining, and in addition, returns a profit, according to the report of Commissioner Edward B. Moore, made public yesterday. The total amount of money received from all sources for the year ended December 31, was $2,942,828.14, and all expenditures totalled $1,955,151.14, leaving a surplus of $87,677.

There is now to the credit of the Patent Office in the Treasury Department nearly $2,000,000. During the year just past 64,468 applications for the issue of patent were received and 1,234 applications for patents for designs. Of these there were issued, including designs, 37,281 letters-patent to inventors.

The Commissioner has prepared a table showing the patents issued to citizens of the different States of the Union shows that New York is the leader in the number of inventors, with 5,232, the nearest competitor being Pennsylvania, with 3,841 patents granted to citizens, the next in rank being Illinois with 2,593.

JOB NOT FOR ROOSEVELT.

Senate Opposes Idea of His Heading Panama Canal Work.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt never will head the work which is digging the Panama Canal, as has been frequently suggested, if the Senate of the United States can prevent it. Representative Mann, of Illinois, many weeks ago introduced a bill which subsequently passed the House, abolishing the Isthmian Canal Commission and providing for the appointment of a director general.

The bill went to the Senate. When it came out from the Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals it contained a slight and harmless clause after the words "director general," which, in substance, said that such an official "should be skilled and learned in the science of engineering."

Midshipmen Must Resign.

The Navy Department has approved the recommendation of Capt. John M. Bowyer, superintendent of the Naval Academy, for the compulsory resignation of forty-eight midshipmen for deficiency in scholarship. The resignations are the result of the examinations held recently at Annapolis.

J. T. S. Holtzman Laid to Rest.

Funeral services for J. T. S. Holtzman, who died Thursday, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 2841 Ave. C, Georgetown. Rev. W. H. Ballenger, pastor of Calvary M. E. Church, officiated. Interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR MADRIZ MEN

Domingo, between the armies of Gen. Chamorro and Mena. The latter occupies a strong position at Santo Tomas. Gen. Vasquez is thus practically surrounded, with all his communication with the interior cut off. Gen. Chamorro holds all the lines and roads to the interior. Gen. Mena has complete control of the territory from Santo Tomas to Rama. There is nothing now to prevent the advance of Gen. Chamorro to Granada.

Rebels in Control.

Reports from the front confirm the news that the revolutionists have complete control of the entire district of Chontales and Granada. Gen. Rivas is only awaiting the advance of Chamorro to join Gen. Aureles Estrada with 1,300 men in the hills six miles from Managua. This force will march with Gen. Chamorro to Managua, which is the destination of Gen. Estrada.

The end of the war is in sight. It is declared here that the policy of President Mena is as brutal as that of Zelaya. A courier sent by Gen. Chamorro with dispatches to Gen. Mena was captured by government troops and was shot without a trial.

A dispatch from Managua Friday night represented the fight at Las Garzas as a great victory for the government troops.

HATTERS WILL APPEAL.

Will Take Boycotting Case to the Supreme Court.

New York, Feb. 5.—Some of the national officers of the United Hatters of North America held a conference lasting several hours this afternoon at the local headquarters of the union over plans for appealing as soon as possible from the decision in the boycotting case by which the United States court at Hartford, Conn., awarded the hatting firm of Loewe &amp; Co., of Danbury, Conn., $20,00
